BATTLEFIELD AVENUES.

ENGINEER ASK FOR DATA AS TO BUILDING SAME.

List of the Avenues—No Town as Fortunate as Gettysburg in Such Driveways.

The avenues on the battlefield attract the attention of every visitor for the excellent roads they are and for the delight it is to travel over them. Gettysburg ought to attract people for permanent residence who could all the year around enjoy driving on the avenues, for there is no town in the country as fortunate as Gettysburg in this respect.

An editor of "Engineering-Contracting," of New York City, after a recent visit to Gettysburg, wrote to Colonel J. P. Nicholson, the following letter:

August 27, 1907.
COLONEL J. P. NICHOLSON,
Chairman Gettysburg Nat. Park Commission,
Gettysburg, Pa.

DEAR SIR:—
On a recent trip over the Battlefield of Gettysburg, I was struck with the excellent roads that your commission have had constructed over various parts of the battlefield. Our paper is devoted to the methods and cost of doing all kinds of construction work, and we are inaugurating in it a department given over entirely to highways, wagon roads and streets. It occurred to me that your Commission might be able to furnish us with the cost of many of the details of building your roads, as well as plans of them. This information would be of great use to engineers and contractors throughout the country showing them a standard of work that is being done. If you can furnish us with any such data, we will thank you. Awaiting an early reply, I remain Yours truly

Surprise Party.

A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Strausbaugh on Sept. 12, in honor of Mr. Strausbaugh. After playing various games all were invited to the dining room where the table was laden with many delicacies of the season. Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Strausbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schriver, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sterner, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sterner, Mr. and Mrs. Eck, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hartzell, Samuel Trimmer, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Rife, Mr. and Mrs. L. Panis, Mae Strausbaugh, Nora Hartzell, Maude Newman, Erma Jacobs, Maude Bucher, Cora Trostle, Mary Reinecker, Mary Eck, Minnie Kane, Nannie Sterner, Eliza Bell, Olive Bucher, Olive Thomas, Violet Panis, Ruth Sterner, Pauline Thoman, Evelyn Panis, Alice Sterner, Messrs. Samuel Strausbaugh, Wm. Hartzell, Paul Newman, Nelson Myers, Ira Stonaker, John Hamilton, Walter Sterner, Marshal Eck, Ralph Sterner, Clarence Cool, Willis Sterner, Emory Strausbaugh, Russell Sterner, Roy Myers, Geo. Kane, Mervine Reinecker, Roy Baker, Charles Trimmer, Maurice and Raymond Sterner, Walter Maring, Ira Dewey, and Paul Sterner, Morris Trostle, Willie Plank, John Sanders, Geo. and Clarence Rife.

Nature's Eternal Law.
Commit a crime and the earth is made of glass. . . . Some damning circumstance always transpires. The laws and substance of nature . . . become penalties to the thief. On the other hand, the law holds with eternal sureness for all right action. Love and you shall be loved. . . . The good man has absolute good, which, like fire, turns everything to its own nature, so that you cannot do him any harm.—Emerson.

Two Women.

What is the difference between the average woman and the advanced woman? Less than a hand's breadth, but, over that, how they can despise each other if they will! "Shrieking sister," on one side, "uninteresting and commonplace person," on the other, though they ought to be mutual helpers, and would be if they had ever met over one of their hundred mutual interests.—Women and Progress.

A Heroic Remedy.

"They had a hard time with that young woman who went into hysterics, didn't they?" "I should say so! They thought at first they would have to give her an anesthetic, but finally they got her quiet with an epidemic infection of typhoid." And a week later the doctor says she is completely cured by the influence of the medicine.—I am more American.

Fresh Butter.

If cooperative dairies were started throughout England, and their butter was sent to the towns the same day as it is made, breakfast would have a new savor, and the British farmer would have a new and enlarged profit. Good butter, direct from the churns, is a food for the gods. Its flavor lingers caressingly on the palate.—Yorkshire Post.

The Best Things of Life.

When we look back at the end of the journey of life we shall consider not how much pleasure we had in it, but how much service we gave in it; not how full it was of success, but how full it was of sacrifice; not how happy we were, but how helpful we were; not low ambition was gratified, but how love was served.—Hugh Black.

ALL FOR THE SAKE OF CHARITY

"Ethel Wilberforce!"
"My dear Grace!"
"What are you doing out in this rain with all those bundles?"
"I don't wonder you ask—I am perfectly ashamed. You never do a thing of this sort but you meet all your friends. I'm shopping, my dear, and I left my motor car at Lyman's and walked down while the chauffeur did another errand. I simply had to get these things for my maid. She is fixing a few of my common things before I go away next week. That girl is a perfect treasure! We're going to Palm Beach, you know."
"Really! No, I didn't."
"Yes. I always run off during this season of the year—things get so slow here at home about now, don't you think so? So I am up to my very ears—tailors, dressmakers and milliners—I detest the whole lot. I have just finished my errands. You better jump into my motor car and run up to the fair for—well, for something or other. I can't remember what. It's at Lewis hall—it won't take a moment. My husband's sister Marion is interested in it and I told her I would go and buy something. One must help these charities along! It is a very worthy object, raising money to send some woman to the hospital, or to the country, or somewhere."
"Marion is always into such things—it does not seem to grate on her to hear about cases like that. I am very sensitive—I can't stand it. It makes me faint and I don't get over it for days. But Marion throws it right off; sometimes I think things don't go very deep with her. She's a nice girl, and of course I'm awfully fond of her, but she is so odd! She never cares for the things I do. She spends all her money on those settlements and she never has her hair waved, or—well, you understand, Grace, dear, what I mean."
"Yes, of course I do, my dear!"
"Yes, we're nothing alike. I simply can't do the things she does, but I'm glad to help with my money. I always give to all good objects—I think we all ought to. Oh, yes! Here we are! He can come back for us in 15 minutes; don't you think so? One can buy a great deal in 15 minutes. We shall not want to stay longer than that—the air is always so bad!"
"Yes, I don't think we want to stay long."
"Fifteen minutes then. Why, I had no idea there would be so many people here. How unbecoming black is to Flora Williams—it makes her look so old!"
"Well, she isn't young!"
"No, but she doesn't have to tell everybody of it. What are these aprons? Aren't they pretty! That's all hand work—every bit of it. It would be awfully nice for somebody. Two dollars! Goodness, what a price! I never use aprons anyway. Let's look at the handkerchiefs."
"One can always buy handkerchiefs!"
"Yes, but I never carry but one kind—very sheer, with a tiny hem, and with my three initials hand-embroidered in the corner. Of course, if I could find them here I'd buy them, no matter what they cost. They haven't them, you see! Of course, you couldn't expect it at a fair. What's over there?"
"Dolls."
"Oh, dolls are lovely! Not that I ever have any use for dolls, but I love to look at them. Isn't that one in pink sweet? Well, we'll leave the dolls for people with children. Is that neckwear in the corner?"
"Yes. Let's go over there. You will surely find something nice over there!"
"My dear Grace, positively I can't! Mrs. Davenport is in charge of that table, and we've had a difference and don't speak. I can't go to her table. It would be so awkward. There isn't time anyway, for the motor will be back and I mustn't keep the chauffeur waiting in this weather. One must consider the servants a little. They are selling ten-cent grabs over there. We'll have just time to have one as we go out. Nothing but a pen wiper! They never paid three cents for that! One always gets cheated at fairs."
"Come. We must hurry, for I have an appointment to have my hair waved, and I must go and buy some fresh violets. These I am wearing are sights! Awfully kind you came with me! These charity affairs take lots of time, but I feel that those who have should do for the less fortunate."
"Good-bye, dear. Come and see me before we go to Palm Beach. Yes, we leave on Thursday."

French Peasants' Odd Business.

"In France, at this season," said a bird dealer, "the banks of the streams are yellow with bonfires every night. About the fires, loaf peasants, men and women, smoking, chatting and spooning."

"They keep the blaze going all night, and at dawn, behold! the ground is an inch or two deep with May flies, fireflies, moths—little creatures that, expecting some unknown and divine sensation, flew out of the darkness into those clear and gemlike flames, fluttered forth again in agony, fell and died."

"The tiny corpses are sold to the French bird dealers at five or six cents a pint, and are resold for food to the owners of pet birds, finches, thrushes, canaries, nightingales and the like."

ACHED IN EVERY BONE.

Chicago Society Woman Who Was So Sick She Could Not Sleep or Eat, Cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

When a woman's kidneys go wrong, her back gives out and every little task becomes a burden. She is tired, nervous, sleepless, run down—suffers daily from headache, neuritis, dizzy spells, and bearing-down pains.

Don't worry over imagined "female troubles." Cure the kidneys and you will be well. Read how to find the cure.

Marion Knight, of 33 N. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill., member of the Chicago Federation of Musicians and a well-known club woman, says: "This winter when I started to use Doan's Kidney Pills I ached in every bone and had intense pains in the kidneys and pelvic organs. The urine was thick and cloudy, and I could barely eat enough to live. I felt a change for the better within a week. The second week I began eating heartily. I began to improve generally, and before seven weeks had passed I was well. I had spent hundreds of dollars for medicine that did not help me, but $6 worth of Doan's Kidney Pills restored me to perfect health."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Miss Knight will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

Contracting Wanted.

I am located in Gettysburg prepared to devote myself to business of contracting and repair work. I can point to such buildings as Meade High School, new Dormitory at College and many other buildings which I erected under contract. I respectfully ask for a share of the public patronage.

Catalpa Speciosa Trees.

This will be the future timber of this country. The railroads have invested millions of dollars in this timber for cross ties and telegraph poles for the future. This timber is the native forest tree of the lower Wabash Valley. In 6 years this timber will grow large enough for posts and rails, which will last, exposed to all kinds of weather, from 85 to 90 years. Split shingles on houses in its native country last over 100 years. These trees while growing, are clad in myriad robes of beautiful foliage of flowers. Every new home in the county should have a few of these trees in the yard as they are fast growers. We will have a few thousand of these valuable trees which can be transplanted from our gardens in September and October, 1907. We secured a few seeds at a big expense last winter. We will sell the trees at $3 per 100, less than a 100, 5 cts. each. We will have at the same time 80,000 fine large Gineung Plants which we will sell at 50 cents per 100. The above in city nurseries are quoted at $10 per 100. Every person should assist in introducing this long lasting timber in this country. Call at our gardens, or address

The Modesty of Women

naturally makes them shrink from the undelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing.
Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly nonalcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days refuse to know what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 31 one-cent stamps for perfected, or 21 stamps for cloth-bound.
If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Possibly, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always hidden tiny little nerve that really is at fault.
This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr.
Shoop's Restorative has been so successful in work and aiding hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitation, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds up the heart, it gives real, genuine heart strength.
If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

spring, Butler; Eliza A. Thomas, Centennial, Cumberland township.

John G. Thomas of Youngstown, Ohio, was here last week and bought 4000 bushels of potatoes and a car load of apples that he shipped to Ohio where the crop is short.

Messrs Layton H. Rice and Geo. L.
Culp of Menallen Twp., each raised about 800 bushels of potatoes this season.

The farmers are busy fall seeding and the ground is in excellent condition for that work.

Clyde H. Lady has gone to West Chester State Normal School.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Hoffman and Ira P. Taylor and wife spent last week in Philadelphia.

Mr. John Witmore and wife of Millersville were visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David G.
Minter near this place.

Amos H. Lady and wife are at Hiram C. Lady's in this town.

Rev. and Mrs. Ira Trostle of Dillsburg spent a few days among relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Pius Orner spent last week in York and Hanover.

cuse, N. Y. are visiting relatives here.

HARVEST HOME SERVICES.

BARLOW, Sept. 20.—At Mountjoy church on Sunday morning, Sept. 15, the Harvest Home sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. W. G.
Minnick. There was a handsome display of fruit and vegetables contributed by members of the church. The collection was presented to the pastor at the close of the services.

Rev. W. G. Minnick accompanied by A. M. Waybright attended this week the Adams Co. Conference held in the Lutheran church at Arendts-ville.

David Little and Miss Ada Coppersmith, both of Westminster, visited friends in this place over Sunday.

John S. Maring and wife, of Hanover, and John F. Campbell, wife and daughter Bessie, of Littlestown, were recent visitors of your correspondent
and wife.

Eugene S. Kelley and wife spent a new runabout.

Harry Wolf, of near White church, and Miss Emma Maring, of Hanover, spent Sunday with your correspondent
and wife.

William G. Black, of Cumberland township, is spending a few days in Gettysburg with his son, George P.
Black.

Mrs. John Kuhn, of near this place, is on the sick list.

HOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE.

EAST BERLIN, Sept. 20.—The large stone house on farm of Joseph Jacobs, one mile east of this town, burned down on last Saturday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock. The property was formerly the old Eisenhart Tavern. The tenant was Curtis Ruth.
A large one story brick kitchen, adjoins house and in the rear of it was a frame shed where they had been boiling apple butter on the previous afternoon. The frame building and kitchen were burning furiously before the family were aroused and main building was on fire when they got out, saving two beds and a few chairs.
Over 100 bushels of potatoes burned, and a lot of canned fruit. Mr. Ruth and family had nothing left for breakfast. Mr. Ruth had a light insurance on the household goods in the Paradise company, but his loss was much greater than insurance. The old stone house was built in 1841. Mr. Jacobs the owner had same insured.

Our Town Council have in contemplation an electric light plant for this town.

Charles Butt has a millet stock 7 feet eight inches high.

R. E. Bosserman attorney for heirs of Samuel Bosserman sold house and lot on Main street last Saturday to George Raffensperger of Strasban township for $1000.

U. L. GLATFELTER of East Berlin has sold his sewing factory to Mendel Bros. of Baltimore.

Cruelty of Mothers.

"Talking about the funds raised to train mothers to take care of their sick children," said the woman, "something ought to be done in the way of showing them how to treat their well ones. Yesterday I saw a woman sit her child down hard on the seat by her in the car and pinch him. He was so little. He tried hard not to cry.
It was all I could do to keep from getting up right there and pinching her."

Good Husband to Have.

She was telling a circle of sympathetic friends about the burlesque scene in her home. "Yes," she said, "I had a noise, so I got up at once. Then, under the bed, I saw a man's legs sticking out." "Good heavens!" exclaimed one of the ladies. "That's barbaric!" "No my dear, my husband's legs. He had heard the noise, and—"

WINS FROM COMBINATION.

FAIRFIELD, Sept. 20.—The local ball team crossed bats here last Saturday afternoon with a team purporting to have come from McKnightstown, but in truth was composed of what were supposed to be the "star" players from the McKnightstown, Arendtville, Gettysburg and Belmont teams, and to make the combination still more formidable they were captained and assisted by John Lower an ex "Texas" and Tri-State league player. They came with a determination to "do-up" Fairfield against whom all teams represented in the visiting aggregation have an especial grudge since at different times during this season each in turn have gone down to defeat at our hands. However they were doomed to disappointment for when the smoke of battle had blown away that afternoon they found themselves the worst beaten team that ever came to Fairfield. This is the score Fairfield 25 Adams County 3.

In no time inning did the home team fail to score and in the eighth they piled up twelve runs. In eight innings Fairfield touched up pitcher Baltzley for 16 clean hits and a total of 25 bases.

The feature of the game was the hard hitting of Rowe and Hoofnagle.
The former in seven times to bat had 2 singles 2 doubles and a home run while the latter had in 6 times up 2 singles and 2 three-baggers. The work done by the home team slab artist Mr.
Lowe was of the highest order during the entire game, he didn't hit a batsman or give a single pass to first and for the first five innings not a single base hit was made off his delivery.
Mr. Lowe has pitched fourteen games this season and lost but three of them.

Next Saturday afternoon our team will play a game here against the strong team from Thurmont. We have been informed that they will have Mr. Legore who pitched for Littletown on Memorial day to do the twirling for them. Game will be called at 2:30 p. m.

VALLEY VISITORS.

BUCHANAN VALLEY, Sept. 20.— John E. Opp and wife, of York, spent a short time at Jacob J. Kohl's on Tuesday, going from there to Gettysburg to visit the Battlefield. Mr. Opp is proprietor of the Motter House in York, also stock yards, sale and exchange stables.

Miss Elsie Martin, of Gettysburg, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs.
Albert Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkart and daughter, of Chambersburg, spent several days as guests of John Irwin and family.

Dr. W. E. Holland and Dr. Gel-wick, of Chambersburg, removed the nails off the large toes, for ingrowing nails, of Mrs. John Irwin about two weeks ago.

John A. Cole, of Philadelphia, is visiting his brother Edward G. Cole for a short time. E. N. Cole, another brother, spent several days with his brother, Edward G. Cole.

After a lapse of five years, Frank Lippencott and wife paid a visit to the east. They are now residing in Riverside, California, where Mr. Lippencott has an orange grove. Mr. Lippencott and two brothers formerly lived in Buchanan Valley, but when young men left and went to Southern Minnesota where they lived near to each other and prospered. Frank went to Southern California two years ago. He amassed a large fortune and is a welcome visitor among his old associates of this place. Their home was the place where George Shepard now resides, at the head of the Conowago Creek, South Mountain.

Jacob J. Kohl and wife, accompanied by Miss Clark and Miss Annie Cole, spent Wednesday in Chambersburg and at Augustus Frommeyer's.

The much longed for rain came at last and the farmers are all rejoicing as they want to sow their wheat.

BIG LOT OF POLES CUT.

ORRTANNA, Pa.—The Sharrah Bros. have cut about 3,000 telegraph poles, during the Spring and Summer.

Apple buyers are going the rounds and most of the apples have been bought, prices ranging from $2.00 to $2.25 per barrel.

Mrs. Ida Royster and two daughters and Mrs. Susan Guptill and daughter, from Lee County, Ill., who have been absent for 17 years are visiting their father Mr. Israel Saum and other friends and relatives.

John Starnor of this place, our apple barrel manufacturer is busy getting barrels ready for the barreling of the crops.

John Crone, has sold his farm at Orrtanna containing about 67 acres, to John Bieseker for $4,500.

I wonder if we don't smell oil.

David Sharrah our all around butch-

BOOM GETTYSBURG AND CO.

PROJECT FOR IMPROVEMENT OF ADAMS CO. COMMENDED.

Letter From Native of Adams Co.

Living in New York City With

Good Suggestions.

Editor COMMISSIONER.

Dear Sir:—I have observed with interest your effort during last summer to organize a movement to boom Gettysburg and its vicinity.

You suggested that the local hotel keepers should subscribe a respectable sum for the purpose; a call to which, I presume, they have not responded. Your proposition has been generally reinforced by the suggestions of C. J. W. in your issue of Aug.
28th. He proposes a Y. M. C. A. and an Historical Society. Being heartily interested in my native county of Adams and the welfare of all its people, I coincide in your project and commend and endorse the propositions of C. J. W. Carping critics may say this is not saying or doing much.
My comment may serve to call attention of your readers to the propositions. To get practically to work requires the concurrence of a number of your local citizens, who favor the several projects. To form a local branch of the Y. M. C. A. will not be a difficult task. The proposition needs only to be stated to be very generally accepted. It is in line with your proposition that the people of Gettysburg shall accommodate and properly enertain the many thousands of people who in the course of a year visit this historic town. A local branch of the Y. M. C. A. will be of great advantage.

A local Historical Society must be organized in the same manner. Your citizens need not be told how to perform this kind of work. Get them together and the majority will be ready and willing to give pointers.

Their predecessors got together in due season and secured the county seat for Gettysburg. And after the great battle the generation in control lost no time in laying plans and forming the Battlefield Association. If your people agree upon a project they know how to accomplish it.

Your whole country from Gettysburg to Baltimore and Washington, is so laden.

Instead of enraging in farming, as did our forefathers, the agriculturists should regard themselves as market gardeners and raisers of products for the city markets. They cannot afford to raise wheat at less than a dollar a bushel nor corn at less than 15c. in the great Northwest. Following your suggestion, they should create local markets by entertaining the thousands of visitors who come or will come to their locality as boarders, visitors, or from six to ten dollars per week for the kind of a commodious and pleasant stay and people residing in the vicinity who are out from the city to the mountains to spend their vacation.

I would not be much in favor of spending the money of Adams County to properly entertain their boarders.
It would, however, require a severe change in habits and customs. They are not used to it, and are generally willing to put themselves out to accommodate visitors. It is most reasonable to them however, to receive money in compensation for such service. They would hesitate to regard themselves as boarding house keepers, making excuse that they cannot secure help.

Suppose, however, that to start the project, a few representative citizens from every section of Adams county, get together and form an organization to accommodate city boarders and other visitors in every section of the county and fix the price at a rate not lower than has been stated. If this rate be deemed too high for some sections, additional accommodations can be supplied, such as their reasonable use of a horse and wagon occasionally opportunities for boating, fishing, horseback riding, &c.

With such attractions, and at these prices, suppose 10,000 visitors should each spend three or four weeks in a year in Adams county. Would it or would it not be of great advantage?
The boarders can be secured upon assurance that the accommodations will be supplied.

Respectfully submitted,

Pocket.

GUARANTEED REMEDY FOR INDIGESTION.

Interesting Statement by The People's Drug Store.

When a man comes into this store and calls for any particular indigestion remedy, we always give him what he asks for, but in case he leaves it to us we usually recommend Pepsicola tablets.

There is a preparation we have been selling right over the counter for years, and from actual observation we know it must do good, and really does cure indigestion and dyspepsia or there would be a steady stream of people coming back for their money, as every 25 cent box is sold with the understanding that you must be decidedly benefited or there is nothing to pay.

You simply try Pepsicola tablets with the understanding that they will steady your nerves, improve your appetite, relieve wind belching, coated tongue, sour stomach, fullness after eating, weakened energy, and other symptoms of indigestion or The People's Drug Store is ready at any time to pay back your money without the least argument.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Peoples Drug Store. 50c.

In a runoff spring wagon of Wm. Brown of near East Berlin was entirely demolished.

Stomach troubles, heart and kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the stomach, etc. A weak stomach, causing dyspepsia, a weak heart, with palpitation or intermittent pulse, always means weak stomach nerves or weak heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by the People's Drug Store.

WM. JAMES of Delta has moved into Railroad House at Abbottstown.

OCCASIONAL headache, belching, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite and slight nervousness are symptoms of indigestion which, when allowed to go uncared for, will develop into a case of dyspepsia that will take a long time to get rid of. Don't neglect your stomach. At the first indication of trouble take something that will help along in its work of digesting the food you eat. Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia will do this. Kodol will make your food do you good and will enable you to enjoy what you eat. Sold by Peoples Drug Store.

"Vest Pocket" Literature.

It is a vexed question whether all the pretty new coat and even waist-coat pocket editions of Shakespeare are bought to be read or to impart to their owners, without that exertion, a sense of having somewhere at the back of their minds all that Shakespeare wrote, as they undoubtedly would whenever they turned away from the bookcase.

Suffragists' Plight.

The work of women has never been acknowledged at its full value either in the industrial, social or political world. The opinion still survives among men that women are foreordained for service, that theirs is not work to be acknowledged and repaid, but a sort of divinely imposed duty. —Teresa Billington Greig, in Fortnightly Review.

A Progressive Girl.

Freulein Maier, a stenographer's daughter of Wurttemberg, after leaving school went to England and learned English while serving as a housemaid. Present Day Solomon.

Two women appeared in a St. Louis court in a fight over the possession of a dog. "The lady who kisses the dog can have it," said the judge. One woman turned up her nose, the other stepped forward and kissed the dog, and the judge decided the animal was hers.

Towns with European Names.

The name of Paris is repeated 21 times in this country, the best known place bearing it being in Kentucky. Berlin is used 29 times, Vienna 19, Dublin 17 and Warsaw 14 times. St. Petersburg appears only twice in this country, and Madrid four times, with one Madrid Springs.

Most Northerly American Point.

Point Barrow, in Alaska, is the furthest point north in this country. To get there one must go to Seattle, then by steamer 1,600 miles to Valdez, and then 2,700 miles by sled. It is quite a little trip to take on American soil.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an East-bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore," writes Sam. A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic, her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a deathlike look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suitcase and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I never travel without it, ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil, then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." SHEATZ AGAINST ROOSEVELT.

Voted to Rebuke the President During Session of 1905.

On Creasy's Resolution Endorsing Roosevelt's Railroad Rate Bill, the Republican Machine Candidate Voted with the Gangsters.

We Supported Some Atrocious Measures and Dodged Others.

(Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 18, '07.

On Monday evening January 30, 1905, Representative Farmer Creasy of Columbia county, introduced a resolution in the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, "instructing our Senators and requesting our Representatives in Congress to vote for such measures as will give the Interstate Commerce Commission larger powers, to the end that shippers may have prompt and adequate relief and that rebates may be prohibited." This was interpreted as it was intended to be, as an endorsement of President Roosevelt's policy on the subject of regulating rates on railroads.

The President was engaged at the time in a Titanic struggle with what he characterized as the "railroad lawyers" of the Senate. Aldrich of Rhode Island and Foraker of Ohio led the opposition and all the Democrats and a few Republicans in the body were supporting the pending measure. Mr. Roosevelt had made an appeal for the moral support of the people and on the night the resolution was introduced he was in Philadelphia addressing a mammoth public meeting in the Academy of Music in the interest of his bill.

When the resolution of Mr. Creasy was introduced it was promptly adopted, the only negative vote being cast by Henry F. Walton, Speaker of the House. Consternation followed immediately. Walton informed his machine associates of the import of the vote and they at once began "running to cover." The loiterers in the lobby were summoned to their seats and within an hour Representative Shern of Philadelphia, Penrose's personal representative in the body, moved for a reconsideration of the vote by which the resolution was adopted. After a protest by Mr. Creasy in which he depicted the chagrin which Roosevelt would feel over such a rebuke, the motion was put and carried. John O. Sheatz voting with the majority.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 203.

Immediately after the reconsideration the question of the adoption of the resolution was again put and it was overwhelmingly defeated. John O. Sheatz voting with the other machine representatives against the endorsement of Roosevelt's railroad policy.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 204. For half an hour afterward the machine members indulged in a carnival of rejoicing. The result was telegraphed to Penrose, the machine Senators rushed over to express their congratulations to Speaker Walton and confusion reigned. The President was snubbed "in the House of his friends," politically speaking, but Sheatz fastened himself in the affections of Penrose and the bosses.

Leaning Upon a Broken Reed.

If the friends of Mr. Sheatz depend upon his legislative record during the session of 1905 to establish for him a reform reputation they are likely to have a rude awakening when the official journal of that session is examined. It was a notorious vicious session but the machine majority was so great and the bosses so confident that all the servile members were not required to vote for all the bad measures and even San Rip occasionally dodged or voted directly against the machine. But like Sheatz he was always with them when his vote was needed, so that an opposition vote now and then didn't impair his standing in the Speaker's room or in the Boas Mansion.

For example he voted for the bill increasing the number of Bank Examiners.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 442. This measure was wanted by the machine because it provided a few more places for party dependants.

He voted for the bill to authorize Districts Attorney in counties of population containing over half a million and less than a million population.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 444. This measure was a sop to the machine while in Pittsburg and was wanted by the machine for the same reason as the other.

He voted for the bill to authorize corporations authorized to supply water or manufacture light, "to subscribe for, take, purchase, hold and dispose of the bonds or stock in any company of the same character."—Legislative Record, 1905, page 769. This measure was wanted by the machine for various purposes. In the first place it removed some of the legal obstacles and facilitated the scheme to steal the Philadelphia gas works by the United Gas Improvement company. It also helped that predatory corporation to get control of other gas plants throughout the State.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 769.

He voted for the bill increasing the salaries of the Attorney General and his deputy and increasing the number of officials in that department, obviously for the purpose of making places for machine politicians.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 3717.

He voted for the Quay monument bill.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 2292.

He voted for the bill creating the new office of Statute clerk in the office of Secretary of the Commonwealth.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 2347.

He voted for the bill creating the Bureau of Vital Statistics.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 2687. This measure vastly augmented the inquisitorial powers of the Commissioner of Health and created not less than 4,500 new offices, the main business of whom was to serve as canvassers for the Republican machine. The law has not been used, as yet, to the full measure of its opportunities, because the upheaval expressed in the election of Mr. Berry admonished the machine that it wouldn't be safe. But it is on the Statute books and when the machine is restored to complete power again it will be worked to the limit.

The Crowning Atrocity of Legislation

House bill No. 486 of the session of 1905 is entitled to the distinction of being designated as "the crowning atrocity" of modern legislative jugglery. It conveyed the technical legal authority under which Pennypacker's Board of Public Grounds and Buildings looted the treasury in completing and furnishing the capitol. It was entitled "An act authorizing the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings to make contracts for stationary, supplies, fuel, furniture furnishings, distribution of documents, repairs, alterations and improvements."

Previous legislation on this subject contained no authority to make "repairs, alterations and improvements," and that change constitutes the "joker" under which the grafting was perpetrated. In his testimony before the investigating committee Pennypacker sheltered himself under it and exultantly referred to the security in which he dwelt. All the frauds were legalized, he said, by that legislation, and the expenditures of the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings were limited only by the resources of the treasury. As long as there was a dollar left in the strong box of the State, he said, the board could order furnishings, furniture, repairs, alterations or improvements. Upon that iniquitous measure Mr. Sheatz voted aye.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 2640.

Mr. Sheatz voted for the bill authorizing railroad companies to "acquire, hold dispose of and guarantee the stock and securities of water companies."—Legislative Record, 1905, page 4526. This was one of the notorious water snakes of that session.

While the so-called Philadelphia "ripper" was pending in the Legislature the people of that city were in a state of consternation. The then reform Mayor had offended the bosses by removing the Directors of Departments and appointing as their successors men of character and ability. In resentment of this the machine introduced into the Legislature a bill taking from the Mayor the power of appointing heads of Departments and vesting it in councils. The handful of opponents of the machine, led by John G. Harman, fought earnestly to defeat the measure. One of the expedients resorted to was an amendment offered by Mr. Creasy providing for the election of Directors by a popular vote of the people. That would have completely defeated the purpose of the machine and prevented the passage of the bill. Upon the question of the adoption of the amendment Sheatz voted with the machine in the negative.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 3032. The bill was subsequently passed and was repealed during the extra session of 1906.

Mr. Sheatz voted for the bill "fixing the compensation, duties and mileage of employees of the General Assembly."—Legislative Record, 1905, page 3026. The custom of the machine had been to put a lot of party dependants on the pay-roll of the two Legislative bodies without authority of law and pay them out of the contingent fund which was unlimited. This was called "padding the pay-roll" and some years ago got some prominent politicians, including Justice Elkin, into grave trouble. To legalize the iniquity the legislation was introduced and as shown by the Record, on page indicated Mr. Sheatz voted for it.

The bill creating the "Water Supply commission was another of the water snakes. Mr. Sheatz voted for it.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 3645.

Sheatz As An Artful Dodger.

One of the distinguishing characteristics of Mr. Sheatz's legislative practice was his dodging important votes. Indeed he might well be characterized as "the artful dodger," and whenever the machine didn't actually need his vote for a measure but was not quite certain enough of its passage to permit him to vote against it, he dodged and got on record among the "absent or not voting."

He dodged the vote on the bill creating the Department of Public Health and Charities in Philadelphia.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 3035. The Department of Charities and Corrections in that city had been rendering poor service to the machine for some time. Darham's brother-in-law, Phil Johnson, hadn't been doing as well as he thought he ought to in looting the city because the Director of the Department wouldn't "wink the other eye" at some of his plans and it was determined to get the reorganization of the Department and creating the other, the head of which was to be elected by councils. All the reform forces in the House were outraged by the atrocity but Sheatz dodged the vote, thus silently consenting to the iniquity.

He might easily be forgiven for dodging the vote on the bill increasing the number of employees in the Adjutant General's office.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 3717, for the worst effect of that measure was to create a few needless offices but the laboring men of the State will hardly forgive him for failure to vote for Mr. Shofield's resolution to discharge the Committee on Judiciary General from the further consideration of the "Employers' Liability bill. That measure of vital interest to every working man had been held in the committee so long that the purpose to stifle it had become obvious. Representative Schofield of Clearfield county moved to discharge the committee in order that the members of the House would be compelled to go on record for or against it. Manifestly Sheatz lacked the courage of his convictions for instead of voting yes or no, he dodged.

Mr. Sheatz also dodged the vote on the bill giving the Paper trust the special privilege of holding real estate in this commonwealth. It was pointed out that the corporation was of the New Jersey variety and probably had not the smallest fraction of its capital stock paid in. It was also shown that Pennsylvania corporations didn't enjoy the favors which this New Jersey mushroom asked. But Sheatz hadn't the courage to vote one way or the other. He simply dodged.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 850.

Courage in an Evil Direction.

On some of the machine measures, however, he had courage in plenty. Take the bill creating a Probation officer. That was an infamous proposition. There were hundreds of ballot box stuffers under indictment and the scheme was to make legal provision to have them paroled in custody of machine friends in the event of their conviction. The measure was too rotten even for the House of 1905. It failed of passage for lack of a constitutional majority but John O. Sheatz was among the servile tools who supported it.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 3796.

He had courage, moreover, to disregard the overwhelming protest of the coal miners and mill workers and factory operatives against the bill creating the State Constabulary for he voted for that measure.—Legislative Record, 1905, page 3806-7. It was the pet measure of the machine because it created over 200 snug berths for party workers. As in the case of the bureau of vital statistics, however, it went into operation too shortly before the political revolution which admonished the bosses to be good, so that the original purpose was not fulfilled. Governor Pennypacker appointed a man of character to the head of the force, instead of a politician so that the evil effects were minimized.

This is in brief the legislative record of John O. Sheatz, for the session of 1905. A more careful search of the House Journal or Legislative Record would probably reveal many more delinquencies. But what's the use. Like his predecessor, in the office of Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, he worked to win the friendship of the machine managers and got the same reward, the Republican nomination for State Treasurer. The character of his constituents required that he be allowed to vote with the man who stood for civic righteousness occasionally. The people of the Twenty-fourth ward, Philadelphia, are comparatively honest and independent and wouldn't stand for complete servility. But the bosses control the nominating machines and required his service when it was actually needed. His predecessor, Hon. J. Claude Bedford, was limited to a single term because he wouldn't obey the commands or dissemble in any way. Sheatz was more a politician, however, and pretending a virtue at rare intervals, he fooled the people and served the machine.

The Real Issue.

From the Phila. Record.

Nothing would so weaken the loins of Governor Stuart and the Attorney General and Courts and juries charged with the prosecution of the Capitol plunderers as the election of John Oscar Sheatz to the State Treasuryship. It would be deemed a verdict of popular condonation. The success of Sheatz would be forgotten in rejoicing over the victory of the Gang. The recovery to the State Treasury of any part of the money paid for Capitol "trimmings" would be made doubtful.

Precisely the opposite effect would follow the election of John G. Harman. It would be a popular notification—alike to the Governor, the Gang, the Courts and the country—that the people of Pennsylvania are deeply conscious of the dishonor of their trusted servants and that they deeply resent the treachery, the disgrace and the unexampled plundering of which they have been made the victims.

The Treasury plundering was a fitting climax to the system of Gang management which makes the surplus of the public revenue a paid-in-capital for political gamblers to bank upon. It is this system that is at issue in November. A vote for Sheatz is a vote for the system. A vote for Harman would also be, whether Governor Stuart so regards it or not, a vote of confidence for himself and a vote of rebuke for his predecessors, whose misdoing he has promised to remedy.

The Party is Responsible.

From the Harrisburg Star Ind.

It was claimed by Candidate Sheatz in his speech at Williams Grove that his party cannot be held responsible for the Capitol looting by contractors through the looseness of administration by officials placed in power by his party. "This was the gist, if not the exact language of Mr. Sheatz's apologetic speech, and we have a government and where is the political responsibility to be placed except upon the party in power? If the plundering contractors had been Democrats and the Democratic party had controlled the State offices under which the looting was accomplished, from every Republican stump and in every Republican newspaper the charges would have been rung on Democratic dereliction and malfeasance. Mr. Sheatz's plea in avoidance will not hold water.

Here is a plain proposition. The Health Department at Harrisburg is as rotten as the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings was during the Pennypacker administration, and the Highway Department is not much better. If John G. Harman is elected State Treasurer the corruption of both those Departments will be exposed and the people will wonder why they patiently endured the evils so long.
